

PRESS RELEASE

Sean Scully

Landline

Opens Wednesday February 18, 2015 from 6-8 pm

Exhibition continues through April 4

Landline Wave 2014 oil on aluminum 85 x 75 in
© Sean Scully

Cheim & Read is pleased to announce Landline, an exhibition of eight new paintings by the Irish-born American artist Sean Scully.

Begun in 2013, Scully's Landline series resonates with newfound urgency and freedom. Thick horizontal bands of subtly-layered color provide his compositions with rhythmic pulse, while the interactions between striations of paint bristle with energy. While Scully's canvases recall, on their surface, the contours of the actual landscapes that inspired them, they deepen along levels of recent personal experience and trauma—both physical and emotional.

Hatje Cantz's publication of the book, Danto on Scully, will coincide with the Landline exhibition. In it, Danto's essays on Scully's work are assembled for the first time in one volume, with an introduction by Daniel Herwitz.

The retrospective, Follow the Heart: The Art of Sean Scully 1964–2014, curated by Philip Dodd, will be on view at the Himalayas Art Museum, Shanghai through January 25. The exhibition will travel to the CAFA Museum, Beijing from March 13–April 23. Sean Scully is the first western abstract artist to be the subject of a museum tour in China. Other major upcoming exhibitions for the artist will be: the Pinacoteca do Estado, São Paulo from April 11–July 11, the Palazzo Falier, Venice from May 9–November 22 and the National Gallery of Ireland, Dublin from May 12–September 20.

Please join the conversation with #CheimRead on Instagram, Facebook and Twitter via the hashtag #SeanScullyLandline.

Bill Jensen opens April 9 and continues through May 9.

Cheim & Read 547 West 25 Street, New York